VI. Living Human Treasures System (LHTS)

1) Title:
Living Human Treasures (Yaşayan İnsan Hazineleri)

2) Year of establishment:
Inventory study was made in 2008 for determination of candidates.

3) Objectives:
The main objective of establishment of the Living Human Treasures system is to protect the intangible cultural heritage. The Turkish Culture and Tourism Ministry has been taking inventory of its living human treasures each year since 2008 in an effort to bequeath the knowledge and experience of peerless masters to subsequent generations.

As it is pointed out UNESCO web page, “The Living Human Treasures programme aims at encouraging Member States to grant official recognition to talented tradition bearers and practitioners, thus contributing to the transmission of their knowledge and skills to the younger generations.” With the similar aims in Turkey, The Living Human Treasures programme's main objectives are a high historical, artistic and cultural value within the, execution, or there-creation of the revitalization of the protection of the necessary knowledge and skills of the elements of intangible cultural heritage. Also, increasing awareness of these systems, the specific responsibilities of the member states in the protection of intangible cultural heritages installed. In this way, the positions of carriers of the tradition of the masters are supported and can be provided that the transfer of knowledge and skills emphasized in younger generations.
Also, Living Human Treasures, have more responsibilities for the safeguarding of the intangible cultural heritage to transfer their knowledge:

1. The perpetuation and development of their knowledge and skills;
2. The transmission of their knowledge and skills to the younger generations through formal or non-formal training programmes;
3. Contributing to the documenting and recording of the intangible cultural heritage concerned (video or audio recording, publications, etc.);
4. Dissemination of their knowledge and skills;
5. Any additional duties entrusted to them." (Guidelines for the Establishment of National “Living Human Treasures” Systems, p.4)

4) Legal provisions:
In Turkey, Living Human Treasures conducted the supervision of the Commission Experts that created within AREGEM in the Ministry of Culture and Tourism. The Living Human Treasures nominees are chosen by Provincial Directorate of Culture and Tourism, with the officials of the Public Education Center, scholars on the subject, NGO representatives, ICH practitioners and experts about the folk culture. The active participation is recommended by UNESCO individuals, groups, and communities.

5) Identification and designation process, etc.:
As it is described at UNESCO, similarly in Turkey, Living Human Treasures are people who possess to a high degree the knowledge and skills required for performing or re-creating specific elements of the intangible cultural heritage. At the nomination process, one of the most important features of the nomination is to choose people as living human treasures who possessed unparalleled information and experience in their own field.

Two forms of nomination are recommended. The first one is “individual nomination”. With this nomination people who individually possess in a very high degree the knowledge and skills required for the selected domain of the intangible cultural heritage. The second nomination form is “collective recognition”.

Moreover, it is important for a nominee/nominees to have the experience or skill for execution application competence, commitment to the person or group, the person or group’s ability to develop their own skills and knowledge, and having the ability to transfer these skills to the apprentices.

Living Human Treasures are “After examination of the candidature files, the Commission of experts proposes to the Minister or authority concerned a list of persons who possess to a high level the relevant knowledge and skills in a given domain, for nomination, using as guiding reference the established criteria. In most cases, the Minister makes the final decision concerning the selection of the Living Human Treasures, but this role can be assumed by another body according to the administrative structure of each Member State.”(Guidelines for the Establishment National Systems of Living Human Treasures, p.3)

In Turkey, the folklore researchers in the central unit of the Tourism and Culture Ministry start field surveys. According to the survey results, researchers write a report about candidates who meet the selection criteria to Living Human Treasure. These reports are sent to the Members of the Intangible Cultural Heritage Committee of Experts to study before the meeting. At the Intangible Cultural Heritage Committee of Experts Meeting the folklore researchers make a presentation about the Living Human Treasure nominee. With a written permission statement of the appropriate candidates are unanimously selected by the members of the Committee of Experts and sent to the General Directorate of Research and Education. Later on this information sent to Culture and Tourism Minister for approval. After approval including shorthand feature-length documentary film footages are made about Living Human Treasure nominees. End of these process, awards are given to candidates in a big ceremony with the participation of The Ministry of Culture and Tourism Undersecretary, academics, NGOs, institutions and organizations concerned with the process and members of the national press.

As of November 2013 Turkey's National Inventory of Living Human Treasures are registered of 20 intangible cultural heritage carriers. Inventory update is still in progress.
6) The commission of experts:
As it stated in the “Guidelines for the Establishment of the National Systems of Living Human Treasures”, “The experts comprising this Commission could be civil servants, researchers in the domain of intangible cultural heritage, bearers of knowledge and skills, representatives of communities, local authorities and associative bodies. It should be assisted by a Secretariat provided by the institutional structure to which it is dependent. If need be, outside experts may be called upon for the selection and examination of candidatures.”

In Turkey, commission of experts consists of academics who study folklore and General Director of the Research and Education. Commission experts are faculty members who come from four different universities. Members are:

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Ahmet Arı (Ministry of Culture and Tourism Directorate General of Research and Training)

- Prof. Dr. M. Öcal Oğuz (Gazi University, Department of Turkish Folklore, Ankara)

- Prof. Dr. Metin Ekici (Ege Üniversitesi, Department of Turkish Folklore, İzmir)
- Nail Tan (Retired folklore researcher)
- Mevlüt Özhan (President of Union International de la Marionette Turkish National Center)

7) Criteria selection:
In nominating a person or a group to the rank of Living Human Treasure, the Commission of Experts considers these criterias for eligibility:

“- the excellence in the application of the knowledge and skills displayed;
- the dedication of the person or group;
- the ability of the person or group to further develop his knowledge and skills;
- the ability of the person or group to pass on the knowledge and skills to trainees."

Similar criterias with the UNESCO, there are some criterias described by Culture and Tourism Ministry for Living Human Treasure selection in Turkey. These are:
